NOTES-

Old family records indicate that MICHAEL STUMP , an early settler in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia before 1749 , was in some way related to the Baker - Wendel - or Baltheis families. Michael Stump was a soldier in the French-Indian War of the 1750's and served in His Majesty's Service under Capt. John Blagg. In George Washington's diary 1748-1770, Vol I , by John Fitzpatrick, George Washington records visits to Michael Stump, indicating that they were acquaintances or friends before the American Revolution.

MARY ANN BAKER (1800-1876) married J. ANDREW BUSH in 1829. No authentic record of any children , although the Bush family Bible indicates a daughter Lydia Ann who married a John W. Copenhaver during 1850 with the following children, Andrew Bush Copenhaver born 1851 - Mary Elizabeth Copenhaver born 1853 - Sarah Cornelia Copenhaver born 1855 - Leonard Maybury Copenhaver born 1856 - Lydia Frances Copenhaver born 1858. The Copenhaver family left Virginia during 1856 and settled somewhere in the west.

HENRY MARTIN BAKER (1825-1900) enlisted in Company F 2nd Reg Virginia Volunteers on Apr 18-1861 under Capt. J. Olark and served C.S.A. cause during the Civil War.
